

BASE BALL

Scranton Takes Two Games from Hazleton's Hazleton Ponies.

IMMENSE CROWDS AT THE GAMES

The First Series Champions Drop Both Games at Pottsville, While Reading and Altoona Even Up Matters by Each Winning a Game, Standing of the State League Clubs, National and Eastern League Results—Base Ball Notes of Interest to Lovers of the National Pastime.

CONTRARY to expectation, the Hazleton club, the coming champions of the first series of State League of Base Ball clubs, lost both games yesterday to the Pottsville club in contests noted for heavy hitting by both teams. At Reading the two games scheduled were played, the Altoona club winning the morning game and the afternoon game being won by the home team.

The morning game at Scranton with Hazleton was the prattiest exhibition of ball playing seen this season and was won by the Scranton club in the ninth inning. Hazleton also lost the afternoon game by reason of the superior stick work of the home team. The only change in the standing of the clubs is the changing of positions of the Hazleton and Altoona clubs—the latter going into second place. Scranton has also strengthened her grasp on fourth place. The following table gives the percentages of the clubs, together with the number of games won and lost by each, and their standing in the championship race.

balls. Patchen popped up a fly which Jordan captured and threw Wetzel out at first. That eventful ninth opened with Rogers at the bat. He fled out to Rothmel and Phelan was retired from the bases to Clark. Staltz was hit by the pitcher and Massey's home run followed. Westlake singled and on a hit of similar dimensions by Hodson, Westlake scored, Hogan fled out to Clark.

HAZLETON'S SIDE OF THE GAME

First—Moran, Ely and Clark, the first three batters, struck out. Second—Rothmel went out from Wetzel to Massey, and Moore reached first on Phelan's error. Conroy went out on a fly to Hogan, and Graham was retired from Westlake to Massey. Third—Jordan singled; Fee hit the ball and in running to first struck it with his foot, and was declared out. Jordan went out from Patchen to Phelan, while trying to steal second, and Moran was retired from Wetzel to Massey. Fourth—Ely fled out to Rogers, Clark singled, Rothmel reached first on an error of Staltz, Moore struck out and Conroy fled out to Hogan. Fifth—Moran was retired on a fly to Hogan, Jordan struck out and Fee was retired from Westlake to Massey. Sixth—Moran singled, whole second was won at that point and a base was run from Wetzel to Phelan. Ely struck out, Clark made a forced hit, Rothmel went to base on balls and Moore was retired on a fly to Moran. Seventh—Conroy fled out to Staltz, Graham went out, Phelan to Massey, and Jordan fled out to Hogan. Eighth—Moran reached first on Westlake's error, Ely and Clark singled, Moran scored, Rothmel and Moore fled out to Rogers and Westlake respectively. Ninth—Conroy struck out. Graham fled out to Westlake and Jordan singled. As an experiment in a vain hope of saving the game Manager Hanlon directed Fielder Fairhurst to bat for Fee. Fairhurst struck out.

The game was witnessed by 3,000 persons. Score in detail:

BEST GAME OF THE SEASON.

Wen in the Ninth by Massey's Home Run Drive.

Massey was the hero of yesterday morning's game between Scranton and Hazleton. Neither club had scored until the eighth inning, when Hazleton succeeded in getting one man across the home plate. When Scranton went to the bat in the ninth it looked like a bird, and after Rogers and Phelan, the two first batters, were retired, there was a decided appearance of gloom about the faces of the cranks.

At this critical moment George Staltz took his turn at the willow and Jack Fee was ready to hit him with a ball. George trotted to first and Little Willie Massey next appeared at the plate with his favorite chunk of oak in his brawny hands. The third ball pitched just suited Massey and he met it with terrific force. It started straight for the center field fence and cleared it as gracefully as a bird, landing in the potato garden beyond. The scene that followed beggars description.

SCENE OF WILD ENTHUSIASM.

It was never equalled on a ball field in this city. Players—that is those who filled Scranton uniforms—and spectators were wrought to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. Hodson executed a war dance in front of the grand stand for every joy and Westlake met Massey at third and continued to shake his hand with great vigor until the home plate was reached, where Hogan, Westlake and other braves fell on the neck of the heroic William.

The occupants of the grand stand and bleachers arose as one man and yelled and hooted until the populace residing within a radius of three quarters of a mile thought a riot was in progress at the park. Hats and umbrellas were waved in the air, fire crackers were discharged and a shower of silver coins rained from the grand stand on Massey's head.

CROWDED ON THE FIELD.

From the bleachers and field, hundreds of spectators rushed in and crowded around the player, seeking an opportunity to grasp his hand. It was five minutes before anything like order could be restored and the field cleared, so that play could be resumed. Massey's hit that saved the game will be long remembered in the annals of base ball in Scranton.

It was a great game throughout. The playing, with one or two exceptions, was as sharp and clean as has ever been seen in the city. Both clubs were straining every nerve to win, and Hazleton is anxious to finish in second place and Scranton in fourth. A defeat for either meant that they would have to be contented with a lower place. Fee and Hodson were the pitchers, and it was their battle throughout, and Hodson had the best of it. He was found for only five singles, while Fee was touched up for a home run, a double and seven singles. Luck seemed to be against Scranton. Although we had two singles in the first and a single and a double in the second, we were unable to score on them. Failure to score in the part of our players is the main reason why we came so dangerously close to defeat.

DETAILS OF THE GAME

In the first Hogan struck out, Wetzel singled, Patchen fielded out to Jordan and Rogers, after making a base hit, was put out going to second for interfering with the ball. Phelan scored the second with a single and Staltz drove the ball to first base man Clark, who retired Phelan and Staltz without assistance. Massey made a double and Westlake fled on a fly to Jordan in right. The men went out in one, two, three order in the third and fourth. Massey fled out to Moran on a base hit and Phelan and Staltz were retired on a fly to Conroy and Clark. In the seventh Massey, Westlake and Hodson went out on flies to Ely, Moran and Clark, Hogan expired through a fly to Ely in the eighth and Westlake was again given a base on
